Brian is an associate in the firm's Public Finance and Municipal Government group.

He supports clients across a range of public sector matters and brings a diverse legal background spanning corporate and securities law, regulatory compliance and public law.

Prior to rejoining the firm, Brian was an associate at Fenwick & West LLP, where he advised emerging companies on venture capital financings, formation, and corporate governance and supported public companies with SEC reporting and capital markets transactions.

During law school, Brian served as a law clerk for the University of Washington Division of the Washington State Office of the Attorney General and held legal internships at Adaptive Biotechnologies and Rover.com. Before law school, he worked as a legal practice assistant at Foster Garvey, supporting the firm's Public Finance & Municipal Government group.
