

Lucinda D. Fernald

(she/her)

Counsel

1111 Third Avenue
Suite 3000
Seattle, WA 98101

T 206.816.1323
F 206.464.0125
cinda.fernald@foster.com

Having retired as General Counsel, Cinda participates in Foster Garvey's pro bono practice through the firm's Next Chapter program. She represents clients on a pro bono basis on referral from partner organizations such as Lawyers for Good Government, Legal Counsel for Youth and Children, Northwest Immigrant Rights Project, and Seattle Clemency Project.

Admissions

Washington, 1983

U.S. District Court, Western
District of Washington, 1983

Education

J.D., Harvard Law School (cum laude), 1983

- Harvard Legal Aid Bureau

B.A., Dartmouth College (magna cum laude), Mathematics and Social Sciences, 1979

- Phi Beta Kappa

Honors & Recognition

Martindale-Hubbell AV Preeminent rating

Professional Activities

Legal Voice

- Board of Directors, 1991-1995
- Chair, 1991-1992
- Diversity Committee, 1996-1998

- Legal Committee, 1989-1993
- Personnel Committee, 1999-2003 and 2011-2012
- President, 1993-1994
- Vice President for Administration, 1994-1995
- Vice President for Programs, 1992-1993

Northwest Women's Law Foundation, Board Member, 1996-2006

Washington State Bar Association, 1983-present

- Committee on Professional Responsibility, 2017-2023

News

Providing Assistance to Catholic Charities of Oregon

Foster Garvey Newsroom, 5.3.24

Dan Keppler Promoted to Foster Garvey's General Counsel; Cinda Fernald, Former GC and Long-Time Employee, Set to Retire

Foster Garvey Newsroom, 4.1.22

Speaking Engagements

"Ethical Issues in Health Law," Seattle University Health Law Certificate Program

Speaking Engagement

Seattle, WA, 8.9-8.11.17

"You Can't Say That!—Examining the Ethics of Attorney Communications," Washington Women Lawyers Annual CLE

Speaking Engagement

Seattle, WA, 10.11.13

"Ethical Hypotheticals," Washington State Bar Association, Rules of Professional Conduct - A Year Later

Speaking Engagement

Seattle, WA, 9.24.07