

Silviya Borroff

Senior Immigration Paralegal

1111 Third Avenue
Suite 3000
Seattle, WA 98101

T 206.816.1379
F 206.447.9700
silviya.borroff@foster.com

Silviya has more than 18 years of experience as an immigration paralegal. From assembling documentation to managing deadlines, Silviya plays a central role in both employment- and family-based immigration matters. She supports businesses in building international teams and helps families overcome barriers to reunification, with clarity, care and consistency.

She assists with start-to-finish preparation of a broad range of immigration petitions with focus on employment-based petitions, including H-1B, L-1, O-1, E-1 and E-2, E-3, TN, P, PERM, I-140 and family-based petitions, such as Adjustment of Status (AOS), Change of Status (COS) and more.

Silviya assists clients by conducting research, assembling petition documentation, drafting immigration documents, monitoring deadlines, checking for completeness of materials and coordinating filings and related follow-up, as well as preparing presentations on various employment-related visas.

Education

Paralegal Certificate, University of Washington

M.A., University of Veliko Tarnovo St. Cyril and St. Methodius,
English Philology

Services

Labor, Employment &
Immigration
Immigration

Professional Activities

American Immigration Lawyers Association (AILA) and One America, Volunteer Immigration Paralegal

Northwest Immigrant Rights Project (NWIRP), Interpreter in the Bulgarian and English Languages

U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services, Seattle Field Office, Interpreter in the Bulgarian and English Languages

Washington State Certified Interpreter, Bulgarian and English Languages

News

The Road to Safety: Teaming With NWIRP to Defend the Rights of a Mother and Her Children Escaping a World of Violence
Foster Garvey Newsroom, 3.6.24