

"Disputes of Private Lanes and Roadways," The Seminar Group's 10th Annual Program: Understanding Public Easements in Western & Eastern Washington

Seminar
May 5, 2022
Seattle, WA

Steve Gillespie will be presenting on disputes involving private lanes and roadways at The Seminar Group's 10th Annual Program on Understanding Public Easements in Western & Eastern Washington. His presentation will include an examination of rules specific to private access and shared driveway parking.

This program is designed to help new and seasoned practitioners understand the issues and opportunities facing Washington property owners. Attendees will leave better prepared to protect clients and preserve their rights in the continually developing landscape of property law.

For more information and to register, visit The Seminar Group website.

Related Services

Environmental & Natural Resources
Land Use & Development Permitting
Litigation
Real Estate, Land Use & Environmental