

"CARES Act Loan Programs for Small Businesses," Multnomah Bar Association COVID-19 CLE Series

Webinar
April 7, 2020
Virtual Event

On this webinar, Rob Mecklenborg presents information related to relief for small businesses under the recently enacted CARES Act. He discusses the eligibility requirements and mechanics for Economic Injury Disaster Loans and Paycheck Protection Program loans, along with the treasury guidance that has been released to date.

This is the first in a series of CLE seminars the Multnomah Bar Association (MBA) CLE Committee is offering to its members for FREE to help navigate the current legal environment related to the COVID-19 virus.

A recording of this program is available in the Free CLE Library on the MBA website.

Please note that you must be logged in as an MBA member to access the library.
