

Oregon State Bar Real Estate and Land Use Annual Conference 2025

CLE Conference
August 21-23, 2025
Bend, OR

Join us in Bend for the 2025 Oregon State Bar Real Estate and Land Use Annual Conference, a premier event for legal professionals in real estate and land use law. This conference offers a dynamic mix of general and breakout sessions, providing critical updates and practical insights for your practice.

Event Highlights:

- General Sessions: Explore recent case law and legislative updates in real estate and land use, gain insights into the Supreme Court's evolving approach to federal administrative law, and learn strategies for addressing unlawfully established or land-locked properties. Additional topics include new paralegal licensing rules, mandatory abuse reporting, and professionalism in practice.
- Real Estate Breakout Sessions: Dive into key issues such as litigating commercial sales agreements, navigating challenges in new and existing commercial loans, and mastering residential sale agreements.
- Land Use Breakout Sessions: Tackle rural land and housing challenges, writs of review and mandamus, EFU home occupations, and case studies on recent development projects under Oregon's new housing laws.

Foster Garvey Speakers:

- August 22, 8:20 AM: Opening Remarks by Paul Trinchero, RELU Section Chair, Foster Garvey PC, Portland
- August 22, 8:30 AM: Real Estate Case Law Update, presented by Justice Brooks and Paul Trinchero, Foster Garvey PC, Portland
