

“Adverse Possession? Prescriptive Easements? Here's the What, Where, When, Why, and How,” 2018 RELU Annual Summer Conference

Speaking Engagement

August 10, 2018

Gleneden Beach, OR

Event Sponsor: Oregon State Bar - Real Estate and Land Use Section

Paul Trinchero will discuss the ins and outs of boundary disputes involving prescriptive easements and adverse possession. He will break down the common law requirements for adverse possession, such as actual, open and notorious, exclusive, and hostile occupation as well as the 10-year vesting period.

Paul will also present Oregon law and court rulings dealing with prescriptive easements, including immunity, implied easements and statutory way of necessity.

Register on the Oregon State Bar website.

Contact

Paul H. Trinchero

Related Services

Construction

Eminent Domain & Inverse
Condemnation

Litigation

Real Estate, Land Use & Environmental