

"The Saga of EPA and Washington's Human Health Criteria Standard," Tribal Water Law Conference

Speaking Engagement
September 15, 2020
Virtual Event
Event Sponsor: CLE International

Related Services

Tribal Governments &
Enterprises

The 9th annual update on current issues and challenges in the world of Tribal Water Law will examine COVID-19, climate change and key cases shaping both the landscape and importance of tribal water access.

Lauren King, chair of the firm's Native American Law practice, will discuss the recent changes and legal challenges to changes in Washington state's Human Health Criteria developed by the Department of Ecology.

Learn more and register here.