The 2019 Minority Bar Associations' Mentorship Program was full of incredible success stories, and in 2020 an even larger team of minority bar associations aims to pair law students and young lawyers from historically underrepresented groups with mentor attorneys from all walks of life, including allies, to support mentees as they prepare to enter and navigate their legal careers. For mentors and mentees alike, this is a fantastic opportunity to support one another, learn from one another, and meet the movers and shakers of our profession.

Participants will be formally matched, and pairs will create their own agreement regarding discussion topics, meetings and follow-up. The formal program will last through 2020, but the informal relationships will continue beyond.

Contact SABAW's President-Elect, rania.rampersad@gmail.com, with any questions!
