

Melodie Virtue Quoted in Radio World, "Rosenworcel Ready to Hit Fast- Forward"

Media Mention
November 13, 2023
Radio World

Related Services
IP & Technology

Melodie Virtue was quoted in Radio World on the potential impact of the Democratic majority on the FCC, particularly in relation to ownership rules and regulatory changes. She notes that without a fifth Democratic commissioner, the FCC chair likely advanced items only where there was consensus, leading to a standstill on potentially controversial issues such as net neutrality. With the addition of Commissioner Anna Gomez, the FCC now has its first Democratic majority since Barack Obama left office.

Read the full article on the Radio World website