Foster Garvey is pleased to announce that Brad Deutsch and Arrin Richards have been recognized in the 2025 edition of Washington, D.C. Super Lawyers. Brad was named to the Super Lawyers list for Legal & Government Affairs, marking his third consecutive year receiving this honor. Arrin was selected to the Rising Stars list for Business/Corporate—his first time earning this recognition.

Brad Deutsch, a principal and managing director of Foster Garvey's Washington, D.C. office, focuses his practice on political law and communications law. He provides his clients with strategic, practical and timely guidance to help them navigate evolving regulated environments. Brad advises candidates, political committees, corporations and trade associations on campaign finance, lobbying and election law. He also assists radio and television stations in transactions and regulatory compliance matters before the Federal Communications Commission, as well as in licensing applications and rulemaking proceedings.

Arrin Richards, an associate in the firm's Business & Corporate Finance group, focuses his practice on supporting early- and growth-stage companies in matters involving corporate formation and governance, mergers and acquisitions, and commercial transactions. Arrin has experience negotiating multi-year manufacturing, supplier and service provider agreements for cosmetics, food and beverage and apparel companies. He also regularly prepares media production and licensing agreements, corporate governance documents and transactional documents in corporate restructuring and capital raises.
