

Foster Garvey Adds Attorney Erin Snodgrass to Hospitality, Travel & Tourism Group

Press Release
March 6, 2023

Foster Garvey announces the addition of Erin Snodgrass as Of Counsel in the Hospitality, Travel & Tourism group in Seattle. She represents a wide variety of businesses at all stages in development, including industry leaders and start-up companies, in the areas of hospitality, travel and technology.

“As the travel industry continues to return in full force, Erin’s knowledge and experience navigating the complexities and regulatory considerations our clients encounter in their transactions will be a valuable asset. We are confident Erin will continue to elevate our practice,” said Greg Duff, Chair of the firm’s Hospitality, Travel & Tourism practice.

Prior to joining Foster Garvey, Snodgrass was a principal and co-founder of Snodgrass Annand PLLC, where she focused on technology and commercial transactions, licensing, privacy and marketing for a variety of clients with a focus on clients in the hospitality industry. She also advises clients on media/content transactions and intellectual property. Snodgrass has also worked with clients in developing GDPR-compliance programs and associated documentation, as well as social media and blogging programs, including creating internal policies and policies for external social media partners and contractors.

Previously an adjunct Professor at Seattle University School of Law teaching an upper-division class in Advanced Issues in Copyright Law, Snodgrass has been named a “Super Lawyer” by Washington Law & Politics annually since 2015.

Snodgrass earned her J.D., magna cum laude, from the Seattle University School of Law (1998) and her B.A., cum laude, in Cultural Anthropology from the University of Washington (1994).
