Foster Garvey welcomes Associates Anne Dorshimer and Morgan Jones to the Seattle office. Anne supports the Commercial & IP Transactions practice group, and Morgan joins the Investment Management practice group.

Anne Dorshimer is an experienced attorney who will apply regulatory knowledge and dispute resolution experience to Foster Garvey's leading Alcoholic Beverages practice. Previously a member of a Seattle-based law firm, Anne led civil litigation cases in federal courts, administrative courts and in private arbitration for alcoholic beverage, health care and other clients. Anne also served the Washington State Department of Financial Institutions as Assistant General Counsel, interpreting and applying federal and state securities laws, regulations and statements of policy and corresponded with issuers to discuss compliance. She clerked for the Hon. David W. Christel of the U.S. District Court, Western District of Washington and for the Hon. Frances Marie Tydingco-Gatewood of the U.S. District Court of Guam. Anne holds a J.D. from the University of Washington School of Law and a bachelor's degree in international relations and Mandarin Chinese from Michigan State University.

"Anne brings an impressive blend of litigation experience and regulatory insight that will strengthen our team," said Emily Gant, practice group leader of the Commercial & IP Transactions group. "Her background navigating and advising on matters across highly regulated industries will be a considerable asset to our clients. We are thrilled to welcome her to the firm."

Morgan Jones joins the firm as a member of the Investment Management group. Bringing a multidisciplinary skill set with extensive experience in tax law, Morgan joins Foster Garvey
