

Foster Garvey Welcomes Seasoned Tax Attorney Chris Luna

Press Release
June 20, 2023

Foster Garvey is pleased to announce the addition of Chris Luna as Of Counsel in our Tax & Benefits Practice Group. With more than 10 years of law and Big Four accounting experience, Chris advises clients on a wide array of income tax and transactional matters.

“We are pleased to welcome Chris to Foster Garvey’s Tax team,” said Larry Brant, leader of Foster Garvey’s Tax & Benefits Practice Group. “His unique background and knowledge of transactional and tax matters fits well with the full scope of services our team offers. His practical and creative problem-solving approach to matters is aligned with the top-tier legal services we offer clients.”

Chris earned his undergraduate and J.D. degrees from Washington University in St. Louis and his LL.M. in Taxation from Northwestern Pritzker School of Law.

Foster Garvey’s Tax & Benefits Group is dedicated to helping clients understand tax matters so they can minimize risk, enhance compliance, and maximize tax benefits. Working closely with clients to develop solutions reflective of their business objectives and assisting them in a wide range of tax and benefits matters, clients look to our attorneys to address sophisticated matters for business entities and high-net-worth individuals, relating to planning; compliance; mergers, acquisitions and reorganizations; real estate; entity formation; executive compensation; and controversy with taxing authorities.

Related Services

Federal Tax
State & Local Tax
Tax