

Larry Brant and Greg Duff Named ‘Top Authors’ in 2025 JD Supra Readers’ Choice Awards

Firm News
March 3, 2025
Foster Garvey Newsroom

Foster Garvey is pleased to announce that two of its attorneys have been featured in the 2025 JD Supra Readers’ Choice Awards, recognizing top authors for their thought leadership and reader engagement in key legal and business topics.

Larry Brant and Greg Duff were acknowledged in the Tax and Transportation categories, respectively, for their extensive analysis and in-depth commentary on legal developments shaping each area.

The JD Supra Readers’ Choice Awards highlight the top authors in 33 key topic categories read by C-suite executives, in-house counsel, media and other professionals throughout 2024. This year’s list of honorees comprises 344 authors chosen from a pool of more than 70,000 contributors across the JD Supra platform.

Larry Brant leads the firm’s Tax & Benefits practice and assists business entities and high-net-worth individuals with tax planning and guidance, tax controversy, and business transactions. His acclaimed blog, Larry’s Tax Law, provides CPAs, tax professionals and clients with in-depth analysis of complex tax issues, as well as other timely federal, state and local tax law updates. Larry is a multiple-time honoree for Tax in the JD Supra Readers’ Choice Awards. He is the author of numerous tax-related white papers and articles and frequently appears in leading legal and business publications to examine tax law cases, rulings and developments. Larry regularly speaks at national, regional and local tax institutes and conferences for attorneys, accountants and other tax professionals.

Contact

Larry J. Brant
Greg Duff

Related Services

Hospitality, Travel & Tourism
Tax

Larry Brant and Greg Duff Named 'Top Authors' in 2025 JD Supra Readers' Choice Awards

Greg Duff chairs the firm's Hospitality, Travel & Tourism group and devotes his practice to helping clients mitigate the myriad risks revolving around running a hospitality operation in today's technology-driven world – from negotiating management and other operational agreements to advising on the legal issues of sales distribution and online travel. He has also served as counsel to many of the hospitality industry's local, state and national trade associations and trade groups, including the American Hotel & Lodging Association (AHLA) and the Hospitality Sales and Marketing Association International (HSMAI). His widely popular weekly digest, Online Travel Update, is published on Duff on Hospitality Law and offers a global perspective of key news impacting the hospitality and online travel arena. For seven consecutive years, Greg has been recognized in the Readers' Choice Awards by JD Supra, including being named the No. 1 Author for Transportation in 2021.

For more information about the 2025 Readers' Choice Awards, read JD Supra's official announcement.