Foster Garvey Newsroom

Get to know Lee Marchisio, a distinguished bond lawyer in our Municipal, Health & Housing practice who serves as counsel to school districts, fire protection districts, water-sewer districts, cities, towns and other local governments throughout Washington state. Lee was profiled in the latest National Association of Bond Lawyers (NABL) Member Spotlight.

In the Q&A feature, Lee talks about his experiences since joining NABL in 2015 and highlights resources he has found valuable, such as the "Fundamentals of Municipal Bond Law." Lee also emphasizes the importance of staying diligent in continually updating best practices, and he talks about some of his favorite pastimes when he isn't helping clients navigate municipal law and public finance matters.
