

Tara Schleicher Featured Among 2026 Lawdragon 500 Leading Bankruptcy & Restructuring Lawyers

Honors & Recognition
March 27, 2026
Foster Garvey Newsroom

Foster Garvey is proud to announce that Tara Schleicher has been named to the 2026 Lawdragon 500 Leading Global Bankruptcy & Restructuring Lawyers list, recognizing top advisors who guide companies, investors and other stakeholders through complex financial challenges.

Tara's inclusion on the list marks the fifth consecutive year receiving this prestigious honor. In her practice, she brings deep experience and a client-centered approach. Tara is known for skillfully managing high-stakes restructuring matters and navigating multifaceted legal issues, earning her clients' trust as a valued advisor in the evolving bankruptcy landscape.

The Lawdragon 500 honorees are selected through a rigorous process that includes peer nominations, independent research and editorial team vetting. The annual guide highlights attorneys at the forefront of the restructuring landscape, where financial distress increasingly calls for innovative solutions, from liability management and special situations to distressed transactions.

Foster Garvey's Creditors' Rights & Bankruptcy practice continues to uphold its long-standing reputation for delivering quality counsel and achieving favorable outcomes for its clients. Learn more about the team here.

Contact

Tara J. Schleicher

Related Services

Creditors' Rights & Bankruptcy