In 2001, Foster Garvey established its New York office on Wall Street in the heart of Lower Manhattan. Our strategic location and easy accessibility via public transportation allows us to serve as a valuable resource to our clients in the Northeast.

Our team of New York attorneys represents an array of high-profile entertainers and athletes, financial institutions, as well as local governments seeking to better serve their communities. We also work closely with up-and-coming food brands to help them build their businesses. Our diverse client base spans across multiple industries, ranging from family-owned legacy businesses to dynamic startups and multinational enterprises in need of assistance with complex international legal matters.

Key practice areas in our New York office include Sports, Arts & Entertainment, Litigation & Dispute Resolution, Food & Beverage, Financial Services, and Real Estate.

Our attorneys are passionate about giving back to the community and are actively involved in organizations such as The Academy of Television Arts & Sciences, The Recording Academy, The Union of Reform Judaism, The UJA-Federation, New York Urban Debate League, and New York Road Runners.
