

The Definitive Guide to Chancery Practice in New Jersey

New Jersey Law Center, New Brunswick
March 20, 2018

Event Sponsor: New Jersey Institute for Continuing Legal Education

Paul A. Rowe, Chairman of the Firm and a partner in the Litigation Department, will moderate and lecture at the seminar “The Definitive Guide to Chancery Practice in New Jersey,” to be presented by the New Jersey Institute for Continuing Legal Education (NJICLE) on Tuesday, March 20, 2018 from 4:30pm – 8:05pm. Andrea J. Sullivan, a partner in the firm’s Litigation Department, will also lecture at the program. Mr. Rowe and Ms. Sullivan (with the Hon. William A. Dreier) are the authors of NJICLE’s Guidebook to Chancery Practice in New Jersey, which will serve as the materials for this course.

This seminar will acquaint both new and seasoned practitioners with the ins and outs of practicing in Chancery Court, providing a unique opportunity to hear directly from a panel of Chancery judges along with Mr. Rowe and Ms. Sullivan. Topics to be discussed include:

- Jurisdiction of the Chancery Division, proper and improper filings, equitable maxims and defenses and right to a jury trial.
- What kind of substantive matters are filed in General Equity?
- Specific performance
- Reformation and rescission of instruments
- Unfair competition, trade secrets, raiding and confidential information
- Oppressed minority stockholder suits and valuation issues
- Covenants Not to Compete
- Setting aside fraudulent conveyances
- Partition actions
- What remedies are available to the Chancery litigant?
