

Emerging Issues in Environmental Insurance

Offices of Latham & Watkins LLP, NYC
November 2, 2018

Event Sponsor: New York State Bar Association

Ann M. Waeger, Of Counsel in the firm's Real Estate Department, will be on the faculty for the seminar "Emerging Issues in Environmental Insurance," to be presented on Friday, November 2, 2018 from 9:00am – 1:00pm (ET) at the offices of Latham & Watkins, 885 Third Avenue, New York, NY. The seminar is sponsored by the Environmental Insurance Committee of the Environmental and Energy Law Section, the Business Law Section, and the Committee on Continuing Legal Education of the New York State Bar Association, and will also be available for viewing via a video replay broadcast on November 28, 2018.

This seminar will feature a panel of key decision makers from the leading environmental insurance carriers, including Chubb, XL, Ironshore, AWAC, and Beazley, along with experienced environmental insurance counsel, brokers and risk management specialists. Ms. Waeger and her fellow presenters will examine critical aspects of environmental insurance coverage and provide valuable information on using environmental insurance as a risk management tool in transactions, litigation, and operations.

Sessions will address emerging areas of legal liability in the environmental arena and evolving coverages and will feature practical tips from environmental insurance and coverage professionals. Lessons learned will also be presented to update practitioners with the latest case law and insightful strategies to maximize available environmental coverage and minimize disputes with carriers. Leaders of major environmental insurance companies will contribute to an informative environmental insurance market update and experts will discuss current coverage issues and claim trends.

Ms. Waeger's practice encompasses the purchase, sale and leasing of industrial and commercial real estate, the formation of business entities and the financing of industrial and commercial real property and business
