Event Sponsor: New Jersey State Bar Association Annual Meeting

Emily A. Kaller will participate at a seminar at this year's New Jersey State Bar Association Annual Meeting being held May 15-17 in Atlantic City, NJ. She will be a panelist in a session on "Recognizing and Addressing Gender Bias and Its Effect on LGBT Litigants and Attorneys in the Courts, the Litigation Process and the Law Practice."

Ms. Kaller is chair of the Bar's Women in the Profession Section, which presented this session in collaboration with the Lesbian Gay Bisexual and Transgender Rights Section and the Bar Education Subcommittee of the Supreme Court Committee on Women in the Courts. The program covered employment issues, the litigation process, and how gender issues affecting LGBT court users are addressed within the court system. Ms. Kaller is a partner in the firm's Litigation Department and chair of the firm's Women's Leadership Forum. Ms. Kaller's practice focuses on commercial litigation, including disputes arising under licensing agreements, asset sale agreements, financing and credit facilities, and environmental litigation.
