Regal Cinemas Hadley Theatre 16, South Plainfield

March 21, 2019

Event Sponsor: NJ Institute for Continuing Legal Education

Emily A. Kaller, a partner in the firm's Litigation Department, will participate in a roundtable discussion of current issues surrounding the status of women's rights and forms of discrimination in the workplace, schools and elsewhere following a private screening of the film "On the Basis of Sex," a 2018 biographical legal drama film based on the life and early cases of Supreme Court Justice Ruth Bader Ginsburg. The screening and roundtable discussion will take place on Thursday, March 21, 2019 at the Regal Cinemas Hadley Theatre 16 in South Plainfield: the film will run from 9:00am – 11:00am, followed by a discussion from 11:00am – 12:30pm.

The conversation will focus on equal rights and discrimination in today's society, and will explore how things have changed since Justice Ginsberg argued Moritz v. Commissioner of Internal Revenue, how they've stayed the same, and what is today's narrative and the next frontier.

Ms. Kaller focuses her practice on commercial litigation, including the prosecution and defense of financing, credit and other banking matters, contract disputes, environmental contamination contribution actions and complex litigation.
