Pivotal Issues in Equitable Distribution

New Jersey Law Center, New Brunswick, NJ

October 25, 2014

Event Sponsor: New Jersey Institute for Continuing Legal Education presented in cooperation with the NJSBA Family Law Section

Glenn Berman, Of Counsel in the firm's Litigation Department, will be a featured speaker at the seminar "Pivotal Issues in Equitable Distribution," to be hosted by the New Jersey Institute for Continuing Legal Education on October 25th at the Law Center in New Brunswick.

This informative new program will feature some of the state's leading family lawyers, judges and forensic accountants. The presentation will highlight the financial issues that should be scrutinized by attorneys handling matrimonial matters. Speakers will share their expertise related to the economic factors that are pivotal in many divorce settlements, and how to best use them to advocate for the client.

Judge Berman focuses his practice in mediation, arbitration, and discovery management of complex family, commercial, estate/probate, and general equity matters, as well as law enforcement investigations. Following a 17-year career in private practice, Judge Berman served in the Superior Court of Middlesex County from 1989 to 1998, where he presided over matters ranging from prerogative writs to capital murder. He was appointed Prosecutor for Middlesex County in 1998, appearing before the New Jersey Supreme Court and trying numerous jury cases during his tenure. In 2002, he returned to the Middlesex County bench, serving as Presiding Judge of the Family Part from 2003 to 2008. Prior to his retirement on January 1, 2013, Judge Berman served as one of two judges assigned to the Chancery Part - General Equity, where he presided over probate, foreclosure, and complex commercial disputes.
