

Health Care Reform and Other Critical Issues That Can Cost You Millions

Hilton Woodbridge, Iselin, NJ

March 12, 2013

Event Sponsor: Greenbaum, Rowe, Smith & Davis LLP; Wiss & Company; and Marsh & McLennen Agency

Alan S. Pralgever, Litigation Department Partner, will be participating in the seminar, "Health Care Reform and Other Critical Issues That Can Cost You Millions," presented by Greenbaum, Rowe, Smith & Davis LLP; Wiss & Company; and Marsh & McLennen Agency. The seminar will be held on Tuesday, March 12th at the Hilton Woodbridge in Iselin, NJ.

About

2013 will be the year of "planning." Navigating through the labyrinth of issues, penalties and timelines within the Affordable Care Act is only one of the major issues facing businesses. Learn how to avoid the most common, costly errors and retain control of your business or practice so you can make more money. Central to controlling your business assets are legal, accounting and insurance strategies and how they can protect you if the waters get rough, personally and professionally.

Topics not to be missed include:

- Health Care Exchanges
- Affordable Care Act fees, taxes and penalties
- Succession Planning
- Buy/Sell agreements
- Partner/Shareholder split-ups/disputes
- Divorce
- Impact of the above on business valuation.

Who Should Attend:

Business Owners, Managing Partners, CEOs, CFOs, COOs, CPAs, Risk Managers and HR Professionals
