

A Range of Perspectives on Advising and Implementing Decisions Involved with Advance Directives and POLST

Live Webinar

May 4, 2021

Event Sponsor: Greenbaum, Rowe, Smith & Davis LLP, NJ Hospital Association, NJ Healthcare Financial Management Association, and Medical Society of NJ

Greenbaum, Rowe, Smith & Davis LLP, in collaboration with the New Jersey Hospital Association, the New Jersey Healthcare Financial Management Association, and the Medical Society of New Jersey, will present a three-part series of Lunch & Learn webinars titled "Bioethical Issues Related to End-of-Life Decision Making."

The second program in the series, "A Range of Perspectives on Advising and Implementing Decisions Involved with Advance Directives and POLST," will be presented on Tuesday, May 4, 2021 from 12:00pm – 1:00pm.

The program faculty will be:

Co-Moderators:

John Zen Jackson

Of Counsel, Healthcare and Litigation Departments

James A. Robertson

Partner & Chair, Healthcare Department

Panelists:

Dr. David Barile

Medical Director and Founder, Goals of Care Coalition of New Jersey
Medical Director, Penn Medicine Acute Care for the Elderly Unit; Director, Palliative Medicine Services

Rev. Randolph Parks

Chaplain and Manager of Spiritual Care Services, Newton Medical Center/
Atlantic Health System

Judith S. Parnes, ACSW, LCSW, CMC

Executive Director and Founder, Elder Life Management & Home Care

Attorneys

John Zen Jackson

James A. Robertson

Services

Objective: This webinar will consider Advance Directives, medical Powers of Attorney, and POLST orders in an interdisciplinary discussion by a panel of professionals who provide guidance to patients and families regarding essential decisions to be made in the setting of advance care planning or at moments of imminent decisions.

Target Audience: Physicians, Attorneys, Paralegals, Nurses, Risk Managers, Compliance Officers

For more information and to register: A Range of Perspectives on Advising and Implementing Decisions Involved with Advance Directives and POLST

Continuing Professional Education Credits

CME, Nursing, LNHA/CALA, and CLE Ethic credits will be provided by NJHA/HRET

CPE credits will be provided by NJHFMA Chapter

See Registration Pages for Credit Details