

Seminars & Events

Involuntary Commitments: Much Has Changed in a Year

Live Webinar

October 1, 2024

Event Sponsor: New Jersey Hospital Association

John W. Kaveney, a partner in the firm's Healthcare Department, will be on the faculty for the webinar "Involuntary Commitments: Much Has Changed in a Year" on Tuesday, October 1, 2024, from 11:00 am to 12:15 pm. The presentation will be hosted by the New Jersey Hospital Association (NJHA).

This webinar will examine changes to the New Jersey Involuntary Commitment Law, which provides hospitals with a new process to request a continued hold of a patient in need of involuntary commitment when a bed at an appropriate psychiatric facility cannot be obtained in a timely manner. The speakers will review the impact this new process has had on the overall involuntary commitment process, discuss the challenges hospitals have faced when utilizing this new process, and highlight solutions to complying with the new law. The program agenda is as follows:

- History: Involuntary Commitment Process
- Overview: August 2023 Legislative Changes
- Discussion: Recent AOC Guidance
- Tips and Best Practices under the New Law
- Legal Issues to Keep an Eye Out for in the Future
- Q & A

Mr. Kaveney focuses his practice in healthcare law, representing a range of clients that includes for-profit and non-profit hospitals and health systems, academic medical centers, individual physicians and physician groups, ambulatory surgery centers, ancillary service providers, medical billing companies, skilled nursing and rehabilitation facilities, behavioral health centers and pharmacies. He is Editor-In-Chief of "Healthcare Perspectives," the firm's blog covering issues of interest to the healthcare

Attorneys

John W. Kaveney

Seminars & Events (Cont.)

industry.

Additional program information and registration details on the NJHA website.