2025 Federal Practice Bench-Bar Symposium

New Jersey Law Center & Online
April 10, 2025

Event Sponsor: New Jersey Institute for Continuing Legal Education

Greenbaum partner Jemi Goulian Lucey will be on the faculty for the “2025 Federal Practice Bench-Bar Symposium,” to be presented by the New Jersey Institute for Continuing Legal Education and the Association of the Federal Bar of New Jersey (AFBNJ) on Thursday, April 10, 2025, from 9:00am – 4:00pm. The program will be held at the New Jersey Law Center and will also be available for online viewing.

The 2nd Annual Federal Practice Bench-Bar Symposium is being presented in cooperation with the U.S. District Court for the District of New Jersey. U.S. District Court Chief Judge Renée Marie Bumb will be joined by dozens of federal judges and esteemed practitioners for this comprehensive program that will focus on the essentials of federal civil and criminal practice.

Attendees can enjoy a networking lunch and then choose from several breakout sessions: Discovery in Federal Court, The Effect of Bankruptcy on State Court Proceedings, Federal Criminal Practice Primer and Hot Topics in Federal Civil Procedure. The program will conclude with an insightful roundtable of plenary judges, followed by a cocktail reception.

Ms. Lucey is a partner in the firm’s Employment Law, Litigation and Healthcare Departments. She is a trial attorney who represents private and public entities, including institutions of higher learning, in employment discrimination and retaliation actions, professional negligence cases, Title IX claims, and general business disputes in state and federal courts. She also lectures and consults on employment and human resources law and provides guidance related to litigation avoidance and the practical implications of various state and federal laws affecting employers. A strong advocate for women in the legal profession, she serves on the Executive Board of the New Jersey Women Lawyers Association and is a past President of the NJWLA.
