Using Modern Tools for Old Fashioned Mentorship and Relationship Building

NJSBA 2025 Annual Meeting and Convention
May 14, 2025

Event Sponsor: New Jersey State Bar Association

Joseph A. Natale, an associate in the firm's Litigation, Healthcare, Real Estate and Redevelopment & Land Use practices, will be a panelist for a presentation on "Using Modern Tools for Old Fashioned Mentorship and Relationship Building" at the New Jersey State Bar Association's 2025 Annual Meeting and Convention. The program is scheduled for Wednesday, May 14 from 9:30am – 11:00am at the Borgata Hotel, Casino & Spa in Atlantic City.

This presentation will help all attorneys who want to use modern technology, like social media, more effectively in their professional venture. Find out how to use social media to nurture relationships, build a brand, foster mentorship opportunities and result in leadership positions.

Joe will be installed as Secretary of the NJSBA's Young Lawyers Division at this year's Annual Meeting. He concentrates his practice on commercial litigation, business torts, shareholder and partnership disputes, breach of contract actions, construction disputes, municipal litigation, real estate and land use litigation, employment disputes, and the defense of professional liability actions. His work on behalf of clients encompasses all aspects of pre-trial, trial, chancery and appellate litigation at both the state and federal levels, as well as in private arbitration and administrative law forums. He provides representation to a diverse range of clients, including large and middle market businesses, entrepreneurs, real estate developers, construction contractors, healthcare providers, professional services firms and local government entities.

Information about the 2025 Annual Meeting and Convention is available on the NJSBA website.
