

Monmouth Vicinage Law Day Symposium

Monmouth County Courthouse
June 3, 2026

Event Sponsor: Monmouth Bar Association and the New Jersey State Bar Foundation

Greenbaum family law attorney Tamires M. Oliveira will be an invited speaker at the Monmouth Vicinage Law Day symposium, taking place on Wednesday, June 3, 2026, at the Monmouth County Courthouse.

Students from throughout the county have been invited to attend the symposium, which will include introductory remarks by Assignment Judge Marc C. Lemieux and a keynote address by New Jersey Supreme Court Justice Michael Noriega, along with a presentation on the naturalization process by Monmouth County Clerk Christine Giordano Hanlon and other speakers. The students will participate in breakout sessions, during which Tammi will have the opportunity to speak with them and share her personal immigration and naturalization story.

The event will also include the presentation of awards to the student winners of the vicinage's Law Day art, essay, and poetry contests. The Law Day symposium and the awards ceremony are cosponsored by the Monmouth Bar Association and the New Jersey State Bar Foundation and are made possible with funding from the IOLTA Fund of the state bar foundation.

Tammi provides representation in all aspects of family law, including divorce, complex asset distribution, prenuptial agreements, cohabitation agreement, alimony, child support, and post-judgment enforcement and modifications. She has experience in cross-border family law matters involving international and multi-jurisdictional issues, including forum/jurisdiction challenges, and provides bilingual representation in English, Portuguese, and Spanish to a diverse clientele, effectively navigating complex legal procedures and cultural sensitivities.

Attorneys

Tamires M. Oliveira