Greenbaum, Rowe, Smith & Davis LLP is pleased to announce that Sean R. McGowan has joined the firm as a partner in the Redevelopment & Land Use and Real Estate Departments. Mr. McGowan concentrates his practice in all aspects of development, redevelopment, land use and zoning, real property transactions, project financing, and the representation of clients on issues related to property management, landlord-tenant matters, and day-to-day business counseling.

In addition to his experience as an attorney in private practice, Mr. McGowan previously served in an in-house legal capacity for a leading New Jersey based commercial developer. In his role as Vice-President of Development and Legal Affairs, he oversaw the development of numerous multi-family residential, retail and warehouse projects, and also assisted the company in navigating a broad range of legal and business challenges. Mr. McGowan comments: "I've been working with the attorneys at Greenbaum for many years, and their work and character have always matched the firm's excellent reputation in the market. I am honored to add my name to the roster of the Greenbaum real estate attorneys and look forward to expanding and augmenting my practice area knowledge as a member of the firm's team."

Speaking on behalf of the firm, Redevelopment & Land Use Department Chair Robert S. Goldsmith adds: "Sean's experience and diverse skill set will greatly benefit the firm's clients. I've always been impressed by his communication skills, which are particularly important in the implementation of redevelopment and land use projects, as well as his great personality, which makes him a pleasure to work with. We're all excited to have him on board."
