

Steven Nudelman Re-Appointed to State Bar Executive Committee

May 5, 2005

Steven Nudelman, an associate in the Woodbridge office of Greenbaum, Rowe, Smith & Davis LLP, has been re-appointed to the Executive Committee of the New Jersey State Bar Association Young Lawyers Division as a Member-at-Large for 2005-2006. The Division organizes and promotes activities that are of assistance to new lawyers in the practice of law and encourages pro bono and community service involvement by all new lawyers.

Nudelman, a member of the firm's Litigation Department, concentrates his practice in complex construction litigation, title insurance defense litigation and general commercial litigation. He is a certified New Jersey Delegate to the Assembly of the ABA Young Lawyers Division for 2004 and 2005. Nudelman regularly judges the national finals of the ABA Law Student Division Negotiations Competition and northeast regional semifinals of the ABA National Appellate Advocacy Competition in New York City. He is a graduate, cum laude, of Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute and received his law degree, cum laude, from Brooklyn Law School.
