

Glenn Berman Hosts Weekly Program on WCTC Talk Radio

April 1, 2015

Glenn Berman, Of Counsel in the firm's Litigation Department, is the host of the latest addition to the Sound Advice program series on 1450 AM WCTC Talk Radio. "The Law Matters" will air on Tuesday nights from 6:00 – 7:00pm, beginning on March 24, 2015. Each week, the program will focus on legal topics of interest to individuals and business owners, and will include interviews with leading figures in New Jersey's legal community.

Prior to joining the firm in 2013, Glenn Berman garnered a wealth of experience from his many years of service to New Jersey's Judiciary. He served in the Superior Court of Middlesex County, was appointed Prosecutor for Middlesex County, and returned to the bench to serve first as Presiding Judge of the Family Part, and subsequently as one of two judges assigned to the Chancery Part - General Equity, where he presided over probate, foreclosure, and complex commercial disputes. During this time, he was also designated as Acting Criminal Part Presiding Judge and Acting Assignment Judge.

Before returning to private practice, Judge Berman was specially designated to preside over New Jersey's 2012 landmark cyberbullying case, State of New Jersey v. Dharun Ravi. He now focuses his practice on mediation, arbitration, and discovery management of complex family, commercial, estate/probate, real estate and general equity matters. His practice area also encompasses special master services, settlement conferences and law enforcement investigations.
