

Steven Nudelman Named Columnist for Plumbing Engineer and PHC News Magazines

June 25, 2015

Steven Nudelman, a partner in the Litigation Department, has been named a columnist for Plumbing Engineer, the magazine of the American Society of Plumbing Engineers. Mr. Nudelman has also been named a featured columnist for Plumbing & Hydronic Contractor (PHC) News, the leading voice for plumbing, mechanical & hydronic heating contractors throughout North America.

A member of the firm's Construction Practice Group, Mr. Nudelman concentrates his practice in construction law and the representation of members of the construction industry across a broad range of matters. His clients include owners, contractors, design professionals, subcontractors and suppliers involved in public and private construction projects throughout New Jersey.

Mr. Nudelman provides counsel on a variety of business disputes, including claims for breach of contract, negligence, professional malpractice, municipal mechanic's and construction lien foreclosure, surety bond claims and Consumer Fraud Act violations. He has also represented clients who receive notice of regulatory violations lodged by enforcement officials under the New Jersey Uniform Construction Code Act.

Mr. Nudelman is a member of the Forum on the Construction Industry and the Section of Litigation of the American Bar Association and the Construction Law Section of the New Jersey State Bar Association.
