AUTOMOTIVE LIABILITY LITIGATION

Our Products Liability Litigation practice defends businesses of all types and sizes in products liability matters.

The attorneys in our Automotive Liability Litigation Group have the trial experience, legal knowledge and resources to help clients appropriately evaluate, defend through trial or alternative dispute resolution all varieties of complex products liability actions, including those that involve alleged wrongful death, personal injury, property damage, or warranty claims. We routinely work with engineers, accident reconstruction experts, biomechanical experts and medical experts throughout the country.
