FINANCIAL SERVICES

Many transactional and litigation attorneys at Hill Ward Henderson work closely with our financial service industry clients. We represent banks, insurance companies, investment firms, and brokers to provide legal services in the areas of financing, formation, regulatory compliance, business operations, acquisition transactions, securities and corporate law.

Our firm has extensive experience in representing lending clients, ranging from major financial institutions to local community banks, in a wide variety of real estate and other commercial financing transactions.

COMMERCIAL LENDING

Our commercial lending team represents lenders of various types (from community, regional and national banks to private equity firms and other non-traditional lenders) in structuring, documenting, and negotiating commercial financing transactions. We have extensive experience advising our lending clients in a broad range of financing transactions, including cash flow and asset-based deals, single-bank, syndicated and senior/junior capital structures, working capital lines of credit, leveraged buyouts, private equity fund subscription lines, dividend recap finance, and various other lending transactions.

We also regularly represent our corporate and private equity clients as borrowers in a wide variety of financing matters. Our commercial lending team works closely with other attorneys in the Corporate & Transactional Group, as well as other practice groups within the firm, to provide the knowledge and experience necessary for each deal.

We are focused on creating value for our lending and borrowing clients through our market knowledge and attention to detail and by adapting to meet client's objectives. Furthermore, we believe we are able to offer exceptional legal services in financing transactions while at the same time controlling client costs.
