PRODUCTS LIABILITY

Our Products Liability Litigation practice defends corporations of all types and sizes in products liability matters.

The attorneys in our group have the trial experience, legal knowledge and resources to help clients appropriately evaluate, defend and resolve all varieties of complex products liability actions, including those that involve personal injury issues, property damage, or warranty claims. We routinely work with engineers, accident reconstruction experts, biomechanical experts and medical experts throughout the country. We also have developed a strong network of other products liability and automobile accident attorneys throughout the U.S. to assist as the need arises.

The attorneys in our Products Liability Litigation Group practice regularly in both federal and state courts and are active in many industry-specific organizations, including the Products Liability Advisory Council, the Defense Research Institute, the Florida Defense Lawyers Association and the American Bar Association.

Several of the attorneys in our group are Board Certified Civil Trial Lawyers and many have been recognized by Best Lawyers in America, American Board of Trial Advocates and Defense Research Institute.

Our group represents clients in a wide variety of industries including automobile manufacturers, large truck manufacturers, medical device companies, pharmaceutical companies, consumer products manufacturers, tobacco companies, aircraft manufacturers and boat manufacturers.
