Julie Christ serves as a paralegal in the firm's Medical Malpractice group with over 20 years of experience in the industry. She is responsible for drafting pleadings, propounding and responding to discovery, processing and reviewing medical records, conducting research, and preparing attorneys for depositions, hearings, mediations, and trial.

Julie obtained her Paralegal Certificate from Washington Online Learning Institute in 2006, and she is a member of the paralegal association, NALA.

Outside of the office, Julie enjoys spending time with family, working on home projects, and biking.
