Marie Borland is practice leader of the firm's Appellate Practice Group. Her practice has centered on appellate representation for over 20 years, and she has been a Florida Bar Board Certified Appellate Practice Lawyer since 2001. Marie's practice is principally devoted to handling appeals involving a broad range of matters, including professional and medical malpractice defense, products liability claims, and complex commercial, property tax, land use and real estate disputes. In addition, she assists the firm's litigation groups with the preparation of dispositive motions and complex legal memoranda. Marie has appeared extensively before the United States Court of Appeals for the Eleventh Circuit, the Florida Supreme Court, and Florida's District Courts of Appeal.

She also serves as appellate counsel to lawyers outside of the firm on both appellate and complex legal and procedural litigation matters. These services include advice regarding appellate rules, procedures and strategies; preparation and editing of briefs and legal memoranda; and representation as co-counsel in trial and appellate proceedings.

In addition to her appellate practice, Marie serves as a mental health advocate on behalf of individuals and their families in need of representation with regard to insurance coverage issues and other matters involving care and treatment. She is a co-founder and president of Changing Minds of Tampa Bay Inc., a Tampa Bay non-profit corporation dedicated to the advancement of mental wellness through community awareness and education, school interventions, and legal advocacy.
