Christine Fallara serves as Construction Litigation Paralegal at Hill Ward Henderson. Christine has spent more than a decade working as both a paralegal and attorney, focusing her practice on real estate, foreclosure, and bankruptcy matters throughout Chicago and the surrounding counties. After relocating to Florida in 2015, she continued working remotely for David T. Cohen & Associates before joining Morgan & Morgan as a paralegal in the Consumer Protection Department. More recently, Christine practiced as an attorney with The Consumer Lawyers, assisting consumers nationwide with inaccurate credit reporting and background check matters.

Outside of work, Christine enjoys reading, crafting, baking, and spending time at the Disney Parks with friends and family.
