Jessica Lovins brings over 13 years of litigation experience to her role as a paralegal. She joined the firm in 2023 and supports the firm's construction litigation group in managing a substantial caseload involving construction disputes, contractor licensing matters, and complex commercial litigation.

In addition to litigation support, Jessica works closely with contractors on licensing and regulatory compliance matters before the Florida Department of Business and Professional Regulation, guiding clients through application, registration, and nationwide verification processes.

Jessica is highly detail-oriented and thrives in fast-paced environments requiring precision, organization, and proactive case management. She is a Florida Notary Public and Online Notary.

Outside of the office, Jessica enjoys strength training, hiking, and spending time with her family. She has a creative side and practices flow arts, including hula hooping, and enjoys attending live comedy shows. An avid planner by nature, she also appreciates meal planning and listening to podcasts.
