Penny Lalonde is a paralegal in the Real Estate Litigation and Commercial Litigation groups at Hill Ward Henderson, with more than 25 years of experience supporting complex commercial, real estate, and construction disputes.

Originally from Calgary, Alberta, Canada, Penny completed her paralegal diploma at The Career College and earned a paralegal certificate through The Center for Legal Studies. She began her legal career in Canada and later completed additional online legal studies after moving to the United States in 2002. Penny relocated to the Tampa Bay area in fall 2024 after more than two decades in Colorado.

Penny's experience includes supporting cases from inception through trial, including courtroom support and electronic presentation management. Outside the office, she owns and operates West Coast Swing dance competitions and serves as a judge, coach, and instructor in ballroom, Latin, and country dance. She also enjoys discovering new hiking trails with her two dogs.
