Steve Cline represents clients in complex commercial litigation and professional liability matters in federal and state court, with experience navigating clients through a wide variety of business-related disputes. Steve also assists clients with commercial lease disputes and other landlord/tenant matters.

While in law school, Steve was a member of the Moot Court team, and served as both a research assistant and teaching assistant. Prior to law school, Steve worked in the claims department for a large insurance carrier.

Steve is actively involved in the Tampa community and serves as the Chair of the Hillsborough County Bar Association's Community Service Committee. Outside the office, Steve enjoys spending time with his wife, Madison, and staying active, whether it being running, biking, swimming, pickup basketball, or golf.
