Hill Ward Henderson is proud to announce that attorney Allison M. Stevenson has been appointed to the Florida Bar Constitutional Judiciary Committee for a three-year term. The Constitutional Judiciary Committee works to strengthen the public's understanding of the role of the judicial branch of government, the Constitution, the rule of law, and the role of judges and juries in the administration of justice. The Committee oversees several programs and initiatives including, Benchmarks: Raising the Bar on Civics Education; the Bar's Voter Guide on judicial elections and merit retention; and the Judicial Candidate Voluntary Self-Disclosure Statements.

Stevenson's practice includes working with product manufacturers and retailers to ensure they are protected against claims for personal injury, wrongful death, false or unfair marketing, and trade libel. She has successfully defended a diverse array of claims in state and federal courts, including in the cosmetics, medical device, tobacco, and home product litigation arenas.

Stevenson earned her J.D. cum laude from Stetson University College of Law and her Bachelor of Science from the University of South Florida.
