Hill Ward Henderson is proud to announce that Robert "Bob" M. Fulton, managing shareholder of the firm, has been recognized as a Florida Trend Legal Elite Notable Managing Partner.

This recognition honors managing partners who demonstrate exceptional leadership, drive meaningful change, and serve as role models both within their firms and the broader community. Fulton's selection reflects his enduring commitment to professional excellence, civic engagement, and visionary leadership.

With three decades of service at Hill Ward Henderson, Fulton currently leads the firm's strategic planning efforts, fosters a culture of collaboration, and champions operational excellence. He plays a vital role in shaping the firm's long-term vision and ensuring alignment with its mission and values. Fulton also contributes his leadership on several key internal committees, including Management, Compensation, Shareholder, Diversity & Inclusion, and Wellness.

Earlier in his legal career, Fulton was retained as statewide counsel for an automobile manufacturer, a testament to the trust he inspires in his clients. Over the years, he has defended prominent national and international corporations in complex product liability cases across Florida and other U.S. jurisdictions.

A passionate advocate for education, Fulton serves on the HWH Scholarship Committee, which awards scholarships to need-based high school seniors who demonstrate academic achievement, strong character, and commitment to community service.

Deeply involved in the community, Fulton currently co-chairs the American Heart Association Lawyers with Heart for the Tampa Bay
