The Hillsborough Chapter of the Paralegal Association of Florida has elected Kim Christmas, FRP and Samantha Wagner, FRP to board positions. Ms. Christmas will be serving as Communications Secretary and Ms. Wagner will be serving as a Board Director. Both serve as paralegals at Tampa law firm Hill Ward Henderson. The Paralegal Association of Florida is a professional organization comprised of 1,000 paralegals from around the state. The Hillsborough County chapter is one of ten chapters throughout Florida that provides professional development programs and continuing legal education for paralegals. Both Ms. Christmas and Ms. Wagner have earned the "FRP" designation which signifies their successful meeting of standards for education, work experience, and adherence to a code of ethics and standards for paralegal certification.
