Hill Ward Henderson is proud to announce that senior counsel, Connolly C. McArthur, has been elected as a member of the Religious Community Services (RCS) Pinellas Board of Directors. Ms. McArthur and four other business leaders in the community were voted in as members of the organization's Board of Directors during the recent RCS Pinellas Annual Board Retreat.

According to RCS, Inc., the role of the RSC Pinellas Board of Directors is to oversee and protect the mission of the organization, which serves 130,000 individuals and families living in Pinellas County by providing food, shelter, clothing, counseling, and youth development programs, services, and support to those facing hunger, homelessness, and domestic violence.

Ms. McArthur is senior counsel in the firm's Litigation Group. She focuses primarily on the defense of long term care communities, including assisted living facility and nursing home claims, and premises liability defense. She has extensive experience in drafting and enforcing arbitration agreements for Long Term Care communities.
