Hill Ward Henderson is pleased to announce that associate, Matthew F. Hall, has been elected to serve a one-year term on the Ybor City Chamber of Commerce 2019/2020 Board of Directors.

The mission of the Chamber is to promote and develop Ybor City by providing business resources, governmental and visitor information through a shared community vision while preserving the community's culture and historic landmarks by sponsoring projects and activities, which stimulate economic development. The Ybor City Chamber of Commerce is focused both on preserving and developing the historic district.

Mr. Hall practices in the firm's Litigation group, primarily focusing in complex commercial litigation, insurance coverage disputes, management-side employment matters and federal court practice. The diversity of his practice is reflected in the diversity of the clients he represents: from Fortune 100 companies to large insurance companies to small and up-and-coming businesses to individuals. With his prior experience as a law clerk with the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Eleventh Circuit, Mr. Hall also assists the firm's appellate practice group with high-profile federal court appeals.
