Matthew F. Hall, an Associate in Hill Ward Henderson's Litigation Group, was recently elected to the Board of Trustees for the Mid Florida Chapter of the National Multiple Sclerosis Society. The Mid Florida Chapter works to improve the quality of life for people affected by MS in 23 counties. By raising funds for cutting-edge research, driving change through advocacy, facilitating professional education and providing programs and services, the organization is able to empower people with MS and their families to move their lives forward.

Mr. Hall's practice primarily focuses on employment law and general commercial litigation. Prior to law school, he served as an infantryman in the U.S. Army, deploying to Iraq in 2003. During law school, he served as President of the Military Law Students Association. Following graduation, he created a scholarship fund for military veterans at the University of Florida Levin College of Law.
