Hill Ward Henderson attorneys Matthew F. Hall, Jeffrey J. Wilcox, and Anisha P. Patel were sworn in to leadership roles for the Hillsborough County Bar Association (HCBA) at the HCBA's annual Installation of Officers and Directors on June 8 at the Chester H. Ferguson Law Center. Shareholder S. Gordon Hill was recognized as Immediate Past President of the HCBA after completing his term as 2017-2018 President.

Matthew F. Hall was sworn in as a returning member of the HCBA Board of Directors; Jeffrey J. Wilcox was sworn in as President-Elect of the HCBA's Young Lawyers Division (YLD) Board; and Anisha Patel was sworn in as an ex-officio member of the YLD Board.

The HCBA is a nonprofit professional member association that caters to the legal community throughout the Tampa Bay area. The HCBA is one of the most active voluntary bar associations in the nation with its 4,000 members known for their dedication and service to the community. Its mission is to inspire and promote respect for the law and the justice system through service to the profession and to the community.

The mission of the YLD is to support the initiatives and goals of the HCBA, promote professionalism and ethical conduct, provide guidance and support to new lawyers, provide educational opportunities for our members, organize programs and events of interest to young lawyers, and encourage community involvement.
