

HILL WARD HENDERSON ATTORNEYS TO SPEAK TO TAMPA BAY CHAPTER OF CONSTRUCTION FINANCIAL MANAGEMENT ASSOCIATION

Firm News

3.1.10

Hill Ward Henderson Attorneys B. Ben Dachevall and Michael P. Brundage will be serving as guest speakers at the Tampa Bay Chapter's Construction Financial Management Association (CFMA) meeting to be held on March 25, 2010. Both gentlemen are Shareholders at the firm. Mr. Dachevall and Mr. Brundage will be presenting the "Impact of Bankruptcy on Construction Projects." CFMA is the only non-profit organization dedicated to serving the financial professional within the construction industry. Established in 1981, CFMA now boasts over 7,000 members and 87 chapters in major cities across the U.S. Members of the Tampa Bay chapter represent all types of contractors, including generals and subcontractors as well as developers, construction managers, architects, engineers, principals and material and equipment suppliers.